NEW HYMNALS

In order to enhance our music at Mass and provide for a greater variety of song selections, we will be purchasing Worship IV and Gather III hymnals and begin using them in February. The missalettes will be discontinued. You will have the opportunity to donate a set of these hymnals as a gift in the name of someone or in memory of a loved one who is deceased. We will have a special nameplate printed for this purpose, which will be affixed to the hymnal. The cost is $40.00 for both hymnals, which must be purchased together. Forms are available at the church’s side doors for this purpose. Many thanks!

BAKE SALE

The Dominican Sisters will be here at the church on January 17 and January 18 after all Masses selling their bread, brownies, and apple blueberry pies. These are all baked according to the Dominican Sisters recipes. The proceeds from the sale will be used to buy medical supplies for their mission to support the lepers.

They are greatly appreciative of your support for their ministry. May God always be with you.

THE NEXT MEETING OF THE PASTORAL COUNCIL AND FINANCE COMMITTEE WILL BE MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9TH AT 6:00 PM IN THE PARISH CENTER.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

"After me comes he who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie." (Mark 1:7) We are put on this earth to love God, love our neighbor and make disciples. How many times does our own pride and ego get in the way on fulfilling God's plan for us? Humbling ourselves before God and putting Him first in all things should be our top priority.

WINTER WEATHER POLICY

In the issue of safety, we want to restate the policy for weekday Mass when the weather is threatening. On those weekdays when Worcester schools cancel or delay opening due to inclement weather, the 7:00 am Mass is also canceled.

NOTE OF THANKS

Bishop Rueger, Father Martinez, and I are grateful to those who sent us cards, gifts, and baked goods, especially Italian cookies, during Christmas. We are thankful to you for your generosity and kindness.

Also, I want to thank Mark Gerardi and Mary DiSilvestro who decorated our sanctuary for Christmas. They did a great job! Thanks, also, to all who donated toward our Christmas flowers, which were beautiful. Thanks to our organists and cantors, our lectors, Ministers of Holy Communion and altar servers who added so much to the beauty of our Christmas Masses.

Please know how grateful I am to all of you who support our parish on several levels, especially time, talent and treasure. May God bless all of you for your goodness and bring peace, happiness, and good health to you and those you love.

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY - SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 08, 2015

World Marriage Day is an annual event, sponsored by Worldwide Marriage Encounter (the largest Catholic pro-marriage and family movement in the world) and the Family Life/Respect Life Office of the Archdiocese of New York. It honors and affirms the vocation of husbands and wives and the positive impact of their dedicated example on our society, families, communities, Church, and nation. We will be celebrating this special event at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel on Sunday, February 8th at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. As part of the celebration we will list the names and years of the married couples in the bulletin that weekend. If you would like to have your name included please call the center at 508-791-6139 or email Joan at joan_dargenis@yahoo.com.

Please include names, the anniversary date and number of years. We are looking for the couples who have been married fifty years or more to give them a special recognition at the Mass. We would like you to share your story or maybe your parents love story with us. Maybe you might share your unique marriage customs. Example I know of one couple, who was married in Italy and they explain how they walked from their house to the church, receiving gifts and blessings along the way. Another couple were very much in love, but could not get married until the older sister was married. They spent time fixing her up until the right one proposed and now sixty years later, they have a great story to tell. We are also going to having a Gallery of Love in the cultural center. We would like to display your marriage photo in our gallery. We will have a reception following the Mass and people will be invited to view the pictures. Please tape your name, wedding date and phone number on the back of the photo. We are also interested in pictures of the wedding party and reception; examples, the cutting of the cake or the throwing of the bouquet. Please help us make this a special occasion and also send a message to our children about the Sacrament of Marriage.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 11, 2015

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Remember how it all started

One of the outcomes of Vatican II was the “rediscovery” of the sacrament of Baptism. The sacrament went from a concern to “get the baby baptized,” an almost private rite, to a public celebration in which the entire family has a role accepting the community’s responsibility to see that child raised firmly in the faith. It is the centerpiece of the important liturgical day Holy Saturday. Celebrate your Baptism today. Dig out photos or videos, remember god-parents with a call or card, consider becoming a catechist or part of your parish’s RCIA program. Keep the faith alive!

TODAY’S READINGS: Isaiah 55:1-11 or Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7; 1 John 5:1-9 or Acts 10:34-38; Mark 1:7-11 (21). “Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.”

MONDAY, JANUARY 12

Nothing ordinary about our lives

In her book, The Kingdom of Ordinary Time, poet Marie Howe reminds us that “ordinary” time is anything but! Through everyday experience, God breathes holiness into our lives. In the poem “The Snow Storm,” for example, the speaker follows the tracks of a deer and leaves her own in the snow. She notes the “little tracks of the birds on the surface of the snow I’d broken through” and recalls Jesus’ words: Put your finger here, and see my hands, then bring your hand and put it in my side. “I put my hand down into the deer track / and touched the bottom of an invisible hoof.” Find God in the ordinary places of your everyday life.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 1:1-6; Mark 1:14-20 (305). “He called them. So they left . . . and followed him.”

TUESDAY, JANUARY 13

FEAST OF HILARY, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Listen up!

To have a vocation is to hear a call. Each age has its own needs and calls its people to fill those needs. In the early fourth century, Saint Hilary’s age, theological controversy and heresy was perceived to be a great threat. Today it might be terrorism, or materialism, or any number of -isms that threaten humanity. What vocation is your life and this age calling you to? Responsible parenthood? Environmentalism? Social justice? Religious life in service to the church and the world? The church asks all of us to “listen up” and hear our call. What do you hear?

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 2:5-12; Mark 1:21-28 (306). “He taught them as one having authority.”

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14

You are not alone

When you are hurting, there’s something comforting about hearing someone say, “I feel your pain.” Even if this means they can’t take the pain away, knowing that other people are with you is a comfort. The burdens that you carry are lighter because others journey with you. Sometimes the test is learning to share your burdens with others and with God. This requires vulnerability and honesty. Jesus knows what it means to be tested. He feels your pain. And with open arms, God invites you to freedom and comfort. All you need to do is lay your burdens down.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 2:14-18; Mark 1:29-39 (307). “He cured many who were sick with various diseases.”

THURSDAY, JANUARY 15

Raise the question

During this Year of Consecrated Life, we’ve been praying for an increase in church vocations. How can you be part of this quest? You might simply raise the idea with young people you know, showing your willingness to talk about such a call. Show openness and support: Encourage, but do not push! Your diocesan vocation office may need volunteers. In your own parish, raise the idea in catechism classes. Never denigrate other vocations: To be a priest/religious is not better than being a married or unmarried Catholic. If vocation means a “call,” then we need to help each other listen.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 3:7-14; Mark 1:40-45 (308). “Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand.”

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16

Create belonging

In 1914, Pope Pius X named today the World Day for Migrants and Refugees. Since then, humanity has experienced massive migrations and refugee crises unprecedented in history. Pope Francis spoke directly to migrants and refugees in last year’s message for this day: “Never lose the hope that you too are facing a more secure future, that on your journey you will encounter an outstretched hand, and that you can experience fraternal solidarity and the warmth of friendship!” What can you do to make his reassurance a reality?

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 4:1-5, 11; Mark 2:1-12 (309). “When Jesus saw their faith, he said to him, ‘Child, your sins are forgiven.’”

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17

FEAST OF ANTHONY, ABBOT

Never walk alone

How is it that we remember and honor a person who spent most of his time alone? Perhaps we do so because Anthony, and other ascetics in the early church, had a special vocation that we may not share but we surely can appreciate. Living in solitude is a way to offer witness to the power of the Lord to fulfill a life completely. Alone with the Lord, Anthony lacked nothing. What do you lack and how does the Lord fill your need?

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 4:12-16; Mark 2:13-17 (310). “Jesus said to him, ‘Follow me.’”
