SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends” (John 15:12-13) Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we should be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him.

PARTNERS IN CHARITY

Many thanks to all who have donated or pledged to the 2015 Partners in Charity Appeal. This annual appeal for the Diocese of Worcester serves 28 charitable, educational, and pastoral ministries. Through your generous support, we are able to serve thousands of families and individuals in Worcester County through outreach, formation, evangelization and worship. Our goal again this year is $50,000. The last two years you as a parish successfully exceeded this goal. We are again asking for your generous and faithful support to this vital diocesan campaign. If you haven’t yet pledged or donated, envelopes for this purpose are in the pews. Once completed, they can be dropped into the collection basket, mailed to or dropped off at the parish center. To date, you as a parish have pledged and donated $41,792. We need everyone’s help to make our goal. Again, many thanks!

CAROLE KING THE MUSICAL

Sunday, September 20

Providence Performing Arts Center
Tickets: $88.00 includes show and bus
I will need people to pay in advance, but wanted to secure good seats. So I took a chance and ordered the tickets
now. They go on sale to the public next week.

Long before she was Carole King, chart-topping music legend, she was Carol Klein, BROOKLYN girl with Passion and Chutzpah. She fought her way into the record business as a teenager and, by the time she reached her twenties, had the husband of her dreams and a flourishing career writing hits for the biggest acts in rock 'n' roll. But it wasn't until her personal life began to crack that she finally managed to find her true voice. BEAUTIFUL tells the inspiring true story of King's remarkable rise to stardom, from being part of a hit songwriting team with her husband Gerry Goffin, to her relationship with fellow writers and best friends Cynthia Weil and Barry Mann, to becoming one of the most successful solo acts in popular music history. Along the way, she made more than BEAUTIFUL music, she wrote the soundtrack to a generation.

TAKE FIVE FOR FAITH

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SUNDAY, MAY 10, 2015 SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

You've got a friend

A high-school junior recently pointed out that the word “friend” has lost its meaning. “Isn't there a difference between having a real friend and thousands of Facebook ‘friends’?” Indeed there is, and the difference is trust. A true friend is someone who knows your heart because you have opened it to him or her. This takes trust. It's risky to let yourself be known deeply. But this is just what Jesus does in these hours before his Passion: “I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father.” How do you respond to Jesus calling you his friend? What do you expect of a friend? What do you think Jesus expects of you, his friend?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48; 1 John 4:7-10; John 15:9-17 (56). “This is my commandment: Love one another as I love you.”

MONDAY, MAY 11

EASTER WEEKDAY

Be a good host

From his birth in a stable to his travels as an adult, Jesus gave others the opportunity to take care of him by offering their shelter, sustenance, and company. It was while relaxing and dining as a guest that he imparted so many of his greatest teachings. Christians are called to welcome and serve others as Christ was welcomed and served. Consider opening your home, your wallet, your heart to strangers on a regular basis. You never know what spiritual gifts are in store.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:11-15; John 15:26-16:4a (291). “If you consider me a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my home.”

TUESDAY, MAY 12

FEAST OF PANCRAS, MARTYR

Growing up fast

What were you doing when you were 14? Hanging out with your friends, catching a movie, studying for an eighth-grade exam? Things were quite a bit tougher for Pancras, a Roman youth of 14 who had converted to Christianity along with his family around the year 300. During the persecution of Christians by Diocletian, Pancras refused to perform a sacrifice to the Roman gods. Impressed with the boy's determination to resist, Diocletian promised him riches, but Pancras chose martyrdom instead. Whether or not you would have had the courage at 14—or now—to make the same choice, you can honor Pancras today for the choice he made—on behalf of us all.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:22-34; John 16:5-11 (292). “The crowd in Philippi joined in the attack on Paul and Silas ...”

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13

EASTER WEEKDAY

OMG! Awesome!

Catholic Christians are a conundrum. Our creed is a litany of OMG!s (Oh my God!) literally and figuratively. We believe in one God who is three persons. We believe God became fully human while remaining fully divine. We believe in the resurrection of the dead. Even with these mysteries of our faith, we can come to know our God personally. Theologian Karl Rahner wrote frequently of the experience of God as an intermingling of incomprehensibility and intimacy: “Thanks be to your mercy, you Infinite God, that I don't just know about you with concepts and words, but have experienced you, lived you, suffered you.” Amen!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 17:15, 22—18:1; John 16:12-15 (293). “It is God who gives to everyone life and breath and everything.”

THURSDAY, MAY 14

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Body and soul rise to the occasion

We've all seen artwork commemorating the Ascension—typically Jesus hovering in a cloud above his disciples, taking his leave of this earth with a blessing and promise to return one day. We usually focus on the fact that Jesus “left” earth. But the deeper significance of this event is that Jesus' humanity is taken to heaven with him. He enters into his glory fully embodied. What this tells us is that our own bodies, with all the aches and pains and vulnerability to illness and death, are also sacred space. God redeems all of us—soul and body. Give thanks with every breath, in every cell in your body!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 4:1-13 or Ephesians 1:17-23; Mark 15-20 (58). “Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.”

FRIDAY, MAY 15

FEAST OF ISIDORE

Holiness starts with humility

Humility comes from knowing we're dust: literally humus, the soil. So Isidore the farmer and his wife Maria de la Cabeza, both saints, were planted in holy ground from the start. From humble beginnings, miracles spring up like grass! Today Muslims celebrate Laylat al-Miraj, the event through which their prophet rose into his destiny. Mohammed had a vision in which he meets Adam, John, and Jesus; Joseph, Aaron, Moses, and Abraham. Through these holy encounters, he discovers the necessity to bow and pray before God five times daily. Practice the humility of bowing: before the tabernacle, at the cross, in the presence of all that's holy.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:9-18; John 16:20-23 (295). “Amen, amen, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.”

SATURDAY, MAY 16

EASTER WEEKDAY

Faith practiced is faith perfected

It can be hard to face the fact that life isn't perfect. What you hope for isn't always so and the road to change can be a long one. The journey of life isn't meant to be perfect, however, it's meant to perfect us—to make holy what is by working toward wholeness. Jesus longs for you to be whole. Catholic teaching defines prayer as the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God. Note the qualifier—“of good things.” But what is good? Think of it this way: What do you need today so that you can be more whole? What will allow you to be a joyful witness to the gospel? Start there!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:23-28; John 16:23b-28 (296). “Whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.”
