The Waters of Baptism

Milena Sofia Algieri, daughter of Salvatore and Jennifer (Coakley) Algieri, was initiated into Our Lady of Loreto's Christian family through the Sacrament of Baptism on Sunday, April 17 during the 10:30 am Mass. The parish family of Our Lady of Loreto welcomes her.

Rest in Peace

We, the parish communities of Our Lady of Loreto and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel extend our deepest sympathy to the families and friends of Janice Paldino and Robert Strange. May God grant them peace forever and bring comfort to their families and friends.

First Friday at Loreto

First Friday devotions and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be held on Friday, May 6 in the Loreto Parish Center Chapel with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament beginning at 8:30 am until Benediction at 11:45 am. Please spend a half-hour in adoration and reap many graces for doing so. A sign-up sheet for that purpose will be in the vestibule next weekend.

I need and crave silence and the solitude of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament when I become overwhelmed by the struggles in my marriage or caring for the needs of my children. It is there in the silence that I experience God's grace and love for me, in spite of my sinfulness and all my failings. It is there in the silence that I know for what I was truly made. It is there in the silence that I gain the strength to get back up again and try to love my husband and children the way they deserve to be loved; the way that they are loved by Him.

Beth Elfrey is an attorney who lives in Connecticut with her husband and two sons.

The ANNUAL PARTNERS IN CHARITY APPEAL at Our Lady of Loreto continues with 2 more gifts contributing $ 150.00. This brings our totals to:

88 gifts                      $29,971.00

This is 113 % of our goal of $26,400. We exceeded our goal due to several very large contributions and we are extremely grateful for that.

Thank you for your generosity to this worthy cause. If you have not yet made your commitment, pledge envelopes are still available in the church and in the office.

YEAR OF MERCY

In 1990, a drifter named Robert Knighton was convicted for murdering Richard Denny, 62, and his wife, Virginia, 64, in rural Oklahoma. Knighton made off with $61 and an old truck. Richard Denny was the adoptive father of Sue Norton, a woman from Kansas. Virginia was Sue's stepmother. When Knighton's trial began, Sue sat in the courtroom, confused. "I should feel anger and want vengeance, but I was also taught I need to pray for him and forgive him." During the trial, she learned of Knighton's childhood: a mother who had been married six times; reformatories and prisons starting at the age of 12. The day after the trial ended, she asked to meet with Knighton. He was 6 feet tall, shackled and angry. She took a deep breath and said, "If you are guilty, I forgive you." She offered her hand through the bars. He pulled back. She grabbed it and started praying. "I learned that forgiveness is a gift to ourselves, not for the forgiven." She began to write to and visit him. "Executions just turn more families into victims," she insisted. She lost friends. Knighton became a Christian on Oklahoma's death row. Sue was present at his 2003 execution, his only friend among the witnesses.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (JOHN 13:34) It is easy to love someone when they love us back. But it takes courage to love someone when we feel unappreciated, used or feel our opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage to "love my neighbor" when he may be someone I don't like, someone I don't know or someone who doesn't look like me.

PARTNERS IN CHARITY

Again this year we are asked to assist the Diocese in its charitable and educational outreach to the people of Worcester County. This appeal is a vital lifeline for many throughout the Diocese and allows our parish members to assist in the Church's mission. Special Partners in Charity appeal envelopes can be found in the pews. You can either mail your gift to the Chancery Office or drop it in the collection basket. So far, you, as a parish community, have pledged and/or donated $30,200 toward our goal of $56,700. We still need to raise $26,500 to meet our goal. Please be generous.

ROSES FOR MOTHER'S DAY

Louise Faiola, our Parish Respect Life Representative, will have fresh and silk roses available after all Masses on Mother's Day weekend, May 7 and 8 in the church. Suggested donations for fresh roses are $2 and will benefit Problem Pregnancy and suggested donations for the silk roses are $1 and will benefit Massachusetts Citizens for Life.

The sale of the Novena cards was cancelled due to the lack of availability this year.

If you are interested in the Respect Life Ministry at Our Lady of Mount Carmel-St. Ann please contact Louise at 508-756-1150.

"To the extent that we nourish ourselves on Christ and are in love with Him, we feel within ourselves the incentive to bring others to Him: Indeed we cannot keep the joy of the faith to ourselves. We must pass it on."

NEWPORT PLAYHOUSE – DINNER SHOW AND CABARET

May 21, 2016

PLAY IT AGAIN SAM

Allan Felix has this thing about Humphrey Bogart. If only he had some of Bogart's technique... Bookish and insecure with women, Allan's hero, Bogey comes to the rescue, with a fantastic bevy of beauties played out in hilarious fantasy sequences. Fixed up by friends with gorgeous women, he's so awkward that even Bogey's patience is tried. Allan mostly resembles a disheveled, friendly dog and this is what ultimately charms his best friend's wife, Linda into bed. It's a tough life, making it in the world of beautiful people but if you can't be a hero it helps to have one... We will leave the center at 1:00 p.m. It will be a full day. We should arrive in Newport around 3:30 p.m. You will be given an ocean view tour and then have two hours to shop. Dinner will be at 6:15 p.m. and the show starts at 8:00 p.m. followed by a cabaret show. The bus will leave Newport at 10:30 p.m. Cost is $75.00 that includes coach bus transportation, dinner, show and cabaret. For tickets or more information call Joan at 508-791-6139 or email joan\_dargenis@yahoo.com
